

Happy back to school days!

We are working hard to participate in the nationally sponsored PTA Reflections Art contest! Last year was our first run and we are excited to make it bigger and better! What is Reflections? It's an art contest for students to complete with parents. Entries are due October 26, 2018 for our school-level competition. Once our finalists are selected from Pioneer they will compete at a district level, and possibly go on to state and national levels. We think Pioneer is a perfect venue, since we work so much in the arts!

This year's theme is, Heroes Around Me! That can mean so many different things, so we encourage your child to interpret this theme anyway they want.

Attached is the form to complete and return with your child's entry to their classroom or the front office. They may participate in as many categories as they want. (See the form for age levels and category details.) We also have all the rules and entry details online at pioneerpumas.com/reflections.

Watch for opportunities to collaborate at the upcoming PTA Free Family Event: Art Fair and potential dates during lunch time to work on their projects!

You must submit the Entry Form with your child's artwork. Music composition should be hand written. Literature may be typed or hand written. Digital media-videos, music or other digital media-may be submitted to stephaniejarvis@cableone.net directly (don't forget to include the Entry Form) or on a jump drive labeled with your child's name. Please note - It may be difficult to return the jump drive to you if your child is chosen to proceed to a district level or beyond.

Thank you for your time and support of the arts!

If you have any questions- please feel free to email or call me.

Sincerely,

Steph Jarvis
